

Media Advisory

Minister of Industry, Tourism and Investment heads to Mineral Exploration Roundup to promote the NWT as a mining destination

YELLOWKNIFE (January 15): The Minister of industry, Tourism and Investment, Bob McLeod will be in Vancouver, B.C. next week attending the 27th Annual Mineral Exploration Roundup. The event takes place January 18-21.

While attending the event, Minister McLeod will be there to promote the Northwest Territories as a desirable mining destination. He will also meet with mining industry executives and co-host a reception with the NWT and Nunavut Chamber of Mines for the mining industry on Monday, January 18 at Canada's Northern House.

Media representatives interested in speaking to Minister McLeod while he is in Vancouver should contact :

Andrew Matthews, Communications Officer, Office of the Press Secretary, Premier and Executive Council. 867-669-2302.