INDIGENOUS TOURISM CHAMPIONS PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Selected Champions act as resources to people and organizations in smaller Northwest Territories communities to develop, expand and improve authentic Indigenous tourism products and initiatives. This may include organizing workshops and seminars, providing training, connecting Indigenous tourism businesses with available services and funding, and working with local governments, businesses and the tourism industry.

BENEFITS OF BEING A CHAMPION

- You play a key role in supporting the economic growth of local communities
- You help to preserve local culture and language
- You encourage cultural interest and pride in youth
- You increase understanding between cultures
- You support the preservation of important cultural areas
- You receive a contribution of $5,000 to perform duties that grow Indigenous tourism

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Potential Champions must:

- be of Indigenous Ancestry (First Nations, Inuit, or Métis)
- reside in the NWT
- be born in an NWT community
- demonstrate previous work or significant interest in tourism
