Application processing time and decisions

Applications are reviewed by an Arts Advisory Committee comprised of:

- The NWT Arts Council, which is comprised of NWT artists and/or cultural workers,
- Staff from Industry, Tourism and Investment (ITI) regional offices.

The Arts Advisory Committee makes funding recommendations to the Assistant Deputy Minister, Economic Development, of Industry, Tourism and Investment for approval.

Applicants are notified of the results within 60 days of the application deadline:

- If declined, applicants will be provided with feedback on their application and asked to apply again in the next intake.
- If approved, applicants will receive a grant agreement within 30 days of receiving notice of approval.

All decisions are final; there is no appeal process.

Funding payment

Applicants approved for funding will receive a grant agreement that outlines the terms of funding, payment schedule and reporting requirements.

- Applicants must sign the agreement and send it back to artsfunding@gov.nt.ca within 30 days of receiving the agreement.
- Applications must be approved before beginning the activity. Expenditures made prior to the date of application approval will not be considered.
- To receive the payment, an account with GNWT is required and be in good standing.
- Payment will be processed and sent to funding recipients within 14 to 30 days of the GNWT receiving the signed grant agreement.

Funding conditions

Funding recipients must meet the following conditions:

- Funding must be used for the stated purposes in the approved application. If a situation arises where you cannot use the funds as proposed, contact artsfunding@gov.nt.ca.
- Any changes in part or in full of the grant agreement must be approved in writing by ITI prior to changes being made.
- Applicants must be in good standing with the GNWT and currently be a resident of the NWT.
- Applicants may only apply to this fund for one project at a time. A funded project must be completed and reported prior to re-applying for this fund.
- All overdue reporting must be submitted and approved prior to applying for new arts funding.

Funding acknowledgement

Funding recipients must credit the GNWT for financial support in any publicity prepared in relation to your activities, including electronic, print, or visual material.

Where the logo is unable to be use, the following message can be included on publicity related to the funded recipient's activities:

This project was made possible, in part, with funding from the Government of the Northwest Territories.

Funding reporting

Funding recipients must provide financial reporting within 60 days of the completion of the project outlining how the funds have been used.

To complete required reporting:

- Fill in the 'Actual Costs' and 'Actual Revenues' fields in the budget section of your application.
- Complete the Medium Arts Project Grant reporting survey either using the online or downloadable form from the GNWT website (link will be provided).
