

Mentoring will touch on very confidential and sometimes personal issues. It is therefore essential that the working relationship between mentor and mentee be kept confidential and both parties agree to this understanding.

Below are a couple of statements that can help the mentor and mentee establish a confidentiality agreement. You may accept these as they are, adapt them, or establish a complete new agreement. The important thing is for you both to develop and sign this confidentiality agreement.

1. What we discuss will stay between the two of us. (Use the space below to add to this).

2. What we discuss will stay between the two of us, unless we give each other permission or ask that the information be shared with others. (Use the space below to add to this).

3. Add other additional conditions you both mutually agree to. (Use the space below to define this).
