

Backgrounder: Northwest Territories Creative Industries Economic Recovery Funding

How to Apply:

Submit a 1 to 3 page description of your project no later than Friday, May 29, 2020 at 5:00 p.m. (MST) to nwtarts@gov.nt.ca. The project description should include:

- Your contact information (including name, email and phone number)
- Project description, who is involved and what the purpose is
- How you might share this creation or final project with others (optional)
- How you and others (involved or who you share with) might benefit from the project
- How you will spend this funding (budget breakdown)
- Timeline of project
- How it will abide by NWT Chief Health Officer of Health's recommendations that can be found here: www.hss.gov.nt.ca/en/services/coronavirus-disease-covid-19

General guidelines:

- The purchase of capital assets such as large media or musical equipment, computer equipment or other major tools etc. is not eligible; however, the purchase of supplies for your project may be eligible.
- Applicants may apply for up to 100% of eligible project costs and include artist fees.

Notes:

- A selection committee will assess the applications.
- Applicants must reside in the NWT at the time of application.
- As much as possible, funding will be allocated equitably across NWT communities.
- We will communicate results within 2 weeks of the deadline.
- A second application deadline might be released if funds remain.
- Artists that receive funding through this Recovery Fund will not be eligible for Support for Entrepreneur and Economic Development Program (SEED) funding for the same project/activity this fiscal year.